

INSTRUCTIONAL THEORY INTO PRACTICE STUDY GROUP

Invitation

The best workshop you'll ever attend !

- Want to have fun in the afternoon?
- Have collegial discussion?
- Share Ideas?
- Improve your instructional techniques?

A voluntary workshop study group for staff and teachers to practice and improve instructional techniques. Join us for the first meeting or see Rich Therrien for details.

CEUs Available (must attend 6/8 meetings)
release time for peer observations possible!

Meeting Schedule

Dates	Time	Location
Thur Oct 20	2:30-3:30	Room 403
Nov 9 or 10	2:30-3:30	Room 403
Dec 7 or 8	2:30-3:30	Room 403
Jan 11 or 12	2:30-3:30	Room 403
Feb 1 or 2	2:30-3:30	Room 403
Mar 1 or 2	2:30-3:30	Room 403
April TBD	2:30-3:30	Room 403
May TBD	2:30-3:30	Room 403

Suffield High School

Instructional Theory Into Practice (ITIP) : A Workshop for Secondary School Teachers

The Workshop is a series of 8 collaborative sessions based on current instructional research. We will be using video examples, ideas from colleagues and data analysis to practice and discuss how to use the best possible instructional techniques in our classrooms.

Possible WORKSHOPS

1. First Steps (Intro)
2. Motivation
3. Questioning/Misconceptions
4. Assessment
5. Discussion/Forums
6. Learning Styles (Brain)
7. Writing in the 21st Century
8. TBD